Privet Capital announces the sale of Vivid Toy Group to Goliath

London, 13 November 2018: Privet Capital ("Privet"), a private equity investor, today announces the sale of the Vivid Toy Group ("Vivid" or "the Company"), the UK's largest independent toy company, to Goliath for an undisclosed sum.

This off-market transaction will provide Goliath, a global leader in the toy and game industry, with an immediate and strong presence in one of the world's largest toy and games markets, a market in which they do not currently maintain an on-the-ground presence. Goliath has a longstanding relationship with Vivid, with the Company acting as a distributor for Goliath for over four years.

Vivid is one of Europe's leading independent branded toy and games companies, licensing, designing, manufacturing and selling a combination of in-house developed toy and games IP and third party intellectual property licenses to major retailers in the UK, France, Germany, Benelux and US markets including Tesco, Argos, Auchan, Wal-Mart, Carrefour, Mueller, Target, Smyths, The Entertainer and Amazon. The Company is well-known in the toy industry for its longstanding association with blockbuster brands such as Crayola, Moshi Monsters, Thunderbirds, Bratz Dolls, Animagic, and many others.

During its period of ownership, Privet has driven the modernization and improvement of Vivid's existing systems and operations, and overseen a successful transition in the Company's management, welcoming the highly-experienced leader Tony Hicks as Chief Executive Officer in September 2017.

Steve Keating, Founder and Managing Partner at Privet Capital, said: "This is an exciting deal that makes sense for both parties. Vivid will benefit both from Goliath's scale and its existing understanding of the company, a result of the longstanding relationship between the two businesses, whilst Goliath will instantly gain a substantial presence in a new market. Vivid has been a fantastic business to work with, and we wish them and Goliath every success for the future."
